

GUARDIAN-SRM IS LOOKING FOR A NEW HEAD OF TRAINING

ABOUT US

Guardian-srm is a highly specialised security solutions provider. Based in Denmark since 2005 and working all over the world, we offer individual security solutions and security risk management systems. Our core services include Security Consultancy, Security & Safety Training and Crisis Response.

Our consultants are dedicated, ambitious and professional. We value practical experience, critical thinking and enterprise in our employees. Personal investment and genuine interest in every single assignment ensures that we remain the best in the industry. Our tone is informal, humoristic and direct.

ABOUT THE JOB

Guardian-srm is looking for a profile to lead our Security & Safety Training activities. The main responsibilities of the position are: 1) concept development of both existing and new training and educational offers, 2) planning, preparation and completion of courses and exercises, and 3) maintaining and building our client portfolio through client relations and sales. However, a great degree of variability should be expected in the work tasks.

At the moment, our most popular courses are Hostile Environment Awareness Training (HEAT), Travel Security Awareness Training (TSAT), Remote First Aid and Crisis Management Exercises. Our courses are skills-oriented, practical, and highly interactive.

ABOUT YOU

You must be enthusiastic, creative, independent and presentable, with an interest in security and crisis management. Your background is not set in stone, but you must be a seasoned instructor. Preferably, you have both practical and analytical competences. You could have experience from the police or the military, but it could also be from NGO work or journalism - the important thing is that you have seen the world and that you have handled difficult situations in real life.

An academic background is welcomed and you must have excellent written and spoken English skills as well as being comfortable with a computer and PowerPoint. The job requires you to work in teams, plan ahead in detail, and maintain overview during the courses. Good interpersonal skills are an absolute must.

SPECIFICATIONS

- Full-time and odd hours
- Expect travel days, sometimes outside Europe
- The salary will consist of a fixed part and a variable part, which will depend on the amount of training days completed over the previous month
- You will work out of our main office in Christianshavn, Copenhagen

APPLICATION

Apply by sending a short motivational letter and your CV in English (maximum two pages in a single PDF document). Diplomas, transcript and other relevant documents can be included as an appendix. Applications must be emailed to Frederik Østerby at fro@guardian-srm.com no later than 1 May 2018. The subsequent hiring process will consist of three steps: 1) initial interview, 2) practical test and 3) final interview.

For further information, please contact our COO, Frederik Østerby, at fro@guardian-srm.com or +45 6133 5516. You can also visit our website, www.guardian-srm.com.
